

A vibrant tropical scene featuring a Brazilian carnival dancer in a colorful, beaded costume and a large floral headpiece. She is surrounded by lush greenery, including palm trees and various tropical flowers like hibiscus and sunflowers. In the background, a tropical coastline with a city and a prominent mountain peak is visible under a blue sky with white clouds. A toucan is perched on a branch in the lower right. A large, stylized heart shape with a dashed border is centered in the image, containing text. The overall theme is Brazilian carnival and tropical culture.
